

NOVENA TO ST. JOSEPH

Archdiocese of Seattle

The Year of St. Joseph

This is the Year of St. Joseph! On December 8, 2020, Pope Francis announced a special year dedicated to St. Joseph, continuing until December 8, 2021. This year marks 150 years since Pope Pius IX declared St. Joseph the Patron of the Universal Church. This is a time to get to know and love this special saint.

A Novena of Prayer

Beginning March 10, parishes, schools, and faith communities of the Archdiocese of Seattle are invited to join in a novena of prayer to St. Joseph. These nine days of prayer will be a way for us to prepare to celebrate the Solemnity of St. Joseph, Spouse of the Blessed Virgin Mary, on Friday, March 19.

Using this Novena Prayer Guide

This guide is provided for parishes and schools and includes a simple order of prayer for each day. The brief prayer includes an invitation to prayer with an intention for each day of the novena. A short reading follows, either a Scripture passage or a selection from Patris Corde, Pope Francis' letter for the Year of St. Joseph. This can be read by another reader, or by the leader. The novena prayer follows and the prayer concludes with three invocations from the Litany of St. Joseph. This prayer could be used before meetings or classes. In parishes, it could be used before or after Mass, and might be prayed before the parish's statue of St. Joseph.

Novena Prayer – March 10

Invitation to Prayer

Leader:

This is the Year of St. Joseph. As we prepare to celebrate his feast on March 19, we join in a novena of prayer to this great saint, who is intercessor, support, and guide in times of trouble.

Today, let us pray for a greater openness to God's will for us, and the courage to follow wherever God may lead.

We continue our novena of prayer to St. Joseph, in preparation for his feast on March 19. Today, let us pray for the “unsung heroes” who have kept us going during the pandemic, especially health care workers, teachers, and essential workers.

Reflection

Pope Francis writes: Each of us can discover in Joseph—the man who goes unnoticed, a daily, discreet and hidden presence—an intercessor, a support, and a guide in times of trouble. Saint Joseph reminds us that those who appear hidden or in the shadows can play an incomparable role in the history of salvation. A word of recognition and of gratitude is due to them all. (Patris Corde)

Scripture

The souls of the just are in the hand of God, and no torment shall touch them....
Chastised a little, they shall be greatly blessed, because God tried them and found them worthy of himself. As gold in the furnace, he proved them, and as sacrificial offerings he took them to himself. (Wisdom 3:1, 5-6)

We continue our novena of prayer to St. Joseph, in preparation for his feast on March 19. Today, let us pray for all who have authority over others – bishops and priests, elected officials, teachers, supervisors, and parents – that, like Joseph, they may be examples of gentleness and fidelity.

Reflection

Pope Francis writes: Our world today has no use for tyrants who would domineer others as a means of compensating for their own needs. It rejects those who confuse authority with authoritarianism, service with servility, discussion with oppression, charity with a welfare mentality, power with destruction. (Patris Corde)

Prayer

Leader: Let us pray.

ALL: Hail, Guardian of the Redeemer,

Novena Prayer – March 17

Invitation to Prayer

Leader:

We continue our novena of prayer to St. Joseph, in preparation for his feast on March 19. Today, let us pray for husbands and fathers, that they may learn from St. Joseph to be gentle, loving, faithful, and courageous.

Reflection

Pope Francis writes: Fathers are not born, but made. A man does not become a father simply by bringing a child into the world, but by taking up the responsibility to care for that child. Whenever a man accepts responsibility for the life of another, in some way he becomes a father to that person. (Patris Corde)

Novena Prayer – March 18

Invitation to Prayer

Leader:

We continue our novena of prayer to St. Joseph, in preparation for his feast day tomorrow. On this last day of our novena, let us pray for families, especially families in crisis, that they may draw strength from the example and intercession of St. Joseph and the Holy Family.

Scripture

[Jesus's] mother said to him, "Son, why have you done this to us? Your father and I have been looking for you with great anxiety."

And he said to them, "Why were you looking for me? Did you not know that I must be in my Father's house?"

But they did not understand what he said to them.

He went down with them and came to Nazareth, and was obedient to them; and his mother kept all these things in her heart. (Luke 2:48-51)
